An injunction has been granted against the N. A. Trust and Banking Co. and a receiver is to be appointed. The rapid and almost unaccountable decline in the value of the stock of this institution, it having been in existence but about 3 years, has created much wonder in the street, and whispers have been heard of fraudulent issues of stock and abstractions of valuable assets for the benefit of certain individuels. Now that affairs are in the hands of a receiver something definite will probably be known of the value of the stock and of the manner in which such a large amount of assets has been dissipated
